SECTION 1. 68 IAC 1-12.5 IS ADDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Rule 12.5. Promotional Events

68 IAC 1-12.5-1 General provisions

Authority: IC 4-33-4; IC 4-35-4

Affected: IC 4-33; IC 4-35

Sec. 1. (a) This rule applies to casino licensees.

(b) "Promotional event" means an activity that either:

- (1) is sponsored by a casino licensee; or
- (2) takes place on a casino licensee's property;

and is designed to entice people to visit the casino in order to increase casino patronage or the public awareness and appreciation of gaming in Indiana.

(c) Promotional events must comply with this rule.

(d) The following promotional events require approval by the commission:

(1) An electronic gaming device tournament or live gaming device tournament sanctioned by the casino that:

- (A) incorporates a game;
- (B) may require a buy-in or invitation;
- (C) has a fixed number of players;
- (D) pays out a percentage of the total buy-in; and
- (E) pays out one (1) grand prize and other smaller payouts.

(2) Giveaways where a patron's chances of winning the giveaway are based on the patron's level of play at the casino.

(3) Other promotional events that the commission determines require approval.

(e) The following promotional events require review by the commission:

- (1) Live entertainment.
- (2) Other promotional events that the commission determines require review.

(f) The following activities, if they otherwise would constitute a promotional event, do not require approval under this rule:

- (1) Contributions and donations to charities, and sponsorship of community events.
- (2) Theme decorations.
- (3) Giveaways where the chances of winning are not based on the patron's level of play at the casino.
- (4) Food and nonalcoholic beverage coupons, excluding coupons provided on a routine basis exclusively to card members.
- (5) Other promotional events that the commission determines require only notice.

- (2) The appropriate occupational licensee uses the input form ~~is utilized~~ to prepare and print a live gaming device fill slip.
- (3) Surveillance shall be notified that a live gaming device fill is being processed.
- (4) Based on the information contained on the fill slip, the casino cashier shall prepare the proper denomination and amount of chips or tokens, or both, and sign the fill slip. The casino cashier shall sign the fill slip, summon a security officer, and present the chips or tokens, or both, and the fill slip to the security officer.
- (5) The security officer ~~must~~ shall verify that the denomination and amount of chips or tokens, or both, match the amount on the fill slip. The security officer shall sign the fill slip after verifying the chips or tokens, or both, match the fill slips. The security officer who begins the live gaming device fill must complete the process of witnessing, escorting, and signing the appropriate documentation to verify that the live gaming device fill was completed. If there is a discrepancy with the live gaming device fill, the same security officer who began the live gaming device fill must accompany the fill back to the cage to resolve the discrepancy.
- (6) The casino cashier shall retain one (1) copy of the fill slip in the casino cage.
- (7) The security officer shall transport the chips or tokens, or both, to the appropriate pit area.
- (8) The appropriate level of occupational licensee shall count the chips or tokens, or both, that are received as a live gaming device fill to ensure the denomination and amounts received match the amount and denomination reflected on the fill slip.
- (9) If the amounts in subdivision ~~(7)~~ (4) agree, the occupational licensee who counted fill shall sign the fill slip. The pit supervisor or the equivalent shall also sign the fill slip. A copy of the fill slip or the original shall be inserted into the drop box of the live gaming device that received the fill. A copy of the fill slip or the original fill slip shall be returned to the casino cage.
- (10) If the amounts in subdivision ~~(7)~~ (4) do not agree, the fill slip shall not be signed and the discrepancy shall be resolved in accordance with the policy and procedure submitted in accordance with section 2(b)(8) of this rule. Surveillance shall be notified, and the security officer shall return the chips or tokens, or both, and the fill slip to the casino cage.

(b) ~~The copies of the completed live gaming device fill slip shall be utilized by~~ The casino cashier or appropriate department shall use copies of the completed live gaming device fill slip to balance the cage.
