Sec. 1. (a) It is the purpose of this rule to establish a uniform method of administrative adjudication within the division of family and children in order to determine whether or not any action complained of was done in accordance with federal and state statutes, regulations, rules, and policies. As used in this rule, "policies" includes program manuals, administrative directives, transmittals, and other official written pronouncements of state or federal policy.

(b) This rule shall be construed in such a manner as to provide all parties with an adequate opportunity to be heard in accordance with due process of law. As used in this rule, "party" means:

- (1) a person or entity to whom the agency action is specifically directed;
- (2) the division of family and children; or
- (3) the county office of family and children.

(c) In the event that any provision of this rule is deemed to be in conflict with any other provision of federal or state statute, regulation, or rule that is specifically applicable to any program being appealed hereunder, then such other statute, regulation, or rule shall supersede that part of this rule in which the conflict is found. The person or entity requesting the hearing shall be known as the appellant.

(b) Unless otherwise provided for by law, only those persons or entities, or their respective attorneys at law, whose rights, duties, obligations, privileges, or other legal relations are alleged to have been adversely affected by any action or determination by the division of family and children or any county office of family and children, may request an administrative hearing under this rule. Sec. 3. (a) Any party complaining of any division action in accordance with this rule may file a request for an administrative hearing as provided in this section.

(b) Unless otherwise provided for by statute, regulation, or rule, appeal requests by recipients or applicants shall be filed in writing with the county office of family and children, the division of family and children, or the hearings and appeals section of the family and social services administration not later than thirty (30) days following the effective date of the action being appealed. Applicant and recipient appeal hearings shall be conducted at a reasonable time, date, and place.

(c) Unless otherwise provided for by statute, regulation, or rule, appeal requests by licensees or prospective licensees shall:

(1) be filed in writing by the aggrieved party or its attorneys at law;

(2) set out each objection to the division's actions as well as cite the legal reasons therefor; and

(3) be delivered to the division of family and children within thirty (30) days after receipt of the initial notice upon which the appeal is premised.

Failure to state objections and the legal reasons therefor, in a timely manner, shall be deemed a waiver of such objections. Licensee appeal hearings will be conducted in Indianapolis, Indiana unless the appellant is otherwise notified.

(d) Appeals by Medicaid applicants and recipients concerning Medicaid eligibility or services shall be filed and conducted in accordance with rules promulgated by the office of [sic., the] secretary of family and social services under 405 IAC. (f) The division of family and children or the hearings and appeals section of the family and social services administration, upon application of any party, or in its own discretion, may consolidate appeals to promote administrative efficiency. Hearings may only be consolidated in cases in which the sole issue involved is one of federal or state law or policy.

(g) Any party filing an appeal under this rule is not excused from exhausting all interim procedures that may be required by statute or rule for administrative review prior to the filing of an appeal. Any issues not preserved in a timely manner within the interim review procedures are waived and shall not be an issue during the evidentiary hearing.

(h) The director of the division of family and children is responsible for the appointment of administrative law judges to conduct hearings under this rule. The division of family and children or the hearings and appeals section of the family and social services administration will schedule evidentiary hearings and issue notices to the parties regarding the date, time, and location of the scheduled hearing.

(i) Continuance of a hearing will be granted only for good cause shown. An objection to a request for a continuance shall be considered before a continuance is granted or denied. Requests for a continuance shall be in writing and accompanied by adequate documentation of the reasons for the request. Good cause includes:

- (1) inability to attend the hearing because of a serious physical or mental condition;
- (2) incapacitating injury;
- (3) death in the family;
- (4) severe weather conditions making it impossible to travel to the hearing;

- (1) consulting any party or party's agent on any fact in issue unless upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate;
- (2) performing any of the investigative or prosecutorial functions of the agency in the administrative action heard or to be heard by him or her or in a factually related administrative or judicial action;
- (3) being influenced by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism;
- (4) conveying or permitting others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence the ALJ;
- (5) commenting publicly, except as to hearing schedules or procedures, about pending or impending proceedings; or
- (6) engaging in financial or business dealings that tend to:
 - (A) reflect adversely on his or her impartiality;
 - (B) interfere with the proper performance of his or her duties;
 - (C) exploit the ALJ's position; or
 - (D) involve the ALJ in frequent financial business dealings with attorneys or other persons who are likely to come before the ALJ.

(b) An ALJ shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which his or her impartiality might reasonably be questioned, or in which the ALJ's personal bias, prejudice, or knowledge of a disputed evidentiary fact might influence the decision. Nothing in this subsection prohibits a person who is an employee of an agency from serving as an ALJ.

(c) The ALJ shall be authorized to:

- (1) administer oaths and affirmations;
- (2) issue subpoenas;
- (3) rule upon offers of proof;
- (4) receive relevant evidence;
- (5) facilitate discovery in accordance with the Indiana rules of trial procedure;

Sec. 5. (a) The administrative law judge (ALJ) shall conduct the hearing in an informal manner and without recourse to the technical common law rules of evidence.

(b) The ALJ shall exclude from consideration irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence.

(c) Every party shall have the right to submit evidence. In the event that an objection to evidence is sustained, the party proffering the evidence may make an offer of proof. Each party shall have the right to cross-examine the witnesses and offer rebutting evidence.

(d) Following the completion of the hearing, or after the submission of briefs by the parties (if briefing is permitted by the ALJ), the ALJ shall issue his or her decision in the matter concurrently to the parties. The decision shall be final unless a party requests agency review of the decision in accordance with this rule. The decision of the ALJ in a food stamp intentional program violation hearing or an aid to families with dependent children (AFDC) intentional program violation hearing is a final agency decision.

(e) The ALJ's decision shall:

(1) include findings of fact;

(2) specify the reasons for the decision; and

(3) identify the evidence and statutes, regulations, rules, and policies supporting the decision.

(f) The findings of fact need not include a recitation of every piece of evidence admitted in the evidentiary hearing. Rather, the findings should contain the basic facts that have formed the basis for the ALJ's ultimate decision. The decision must demonstrate a rational connection between the basic facts found by the ALJ and the ALJ's ultimate decision. The ALJ's decision must also cite the relevant laws upon which the ultimate decision is based, and relate the facts to the law. The agency review shall be completed by the division director or the director's designee. All such reviews shall be conducted upon the record, as defined in section 7 of this rule, except that a transcript of the oral testimony shall not be necessary for the review unless a party requests that one be transcribed at the party's expense.

(d) The director of the division of family and children, or the director's designee, shall review the administrative law judge's decision to determine if the decision is supported by the evidence in the record and is in accordance with the statutes, regulations, rules, and policies applicable to the issues under appeal.
