

ARTICLE 3. INDIANA EMPLOYMENT SECURITY ACT; ADMINISTRATION

Rule 1. Contributions; Reports; Sickness and Accident Disability; Group Accounts

646 IAC 3-1-1 Quarterly contributions and reports; taxable wages defined; wage reports

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 1. (a) Every employer subject to IC 22-4 shall file quarterly contribution reports on forms prescribed by the department, or on electronic media in a format approved by the department. These reports are due on or before the last day of the month next following the quarter for which such reports are filed. Contributions are due and payable at the time these reports are filed, except for those employers who have elected to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions.

(b) Such reports must show the total remuneration paid for covered employment as well as wages subject to contribution. The amount of payroll subject to contribution for any year is termed "wages" and is limited as follows:

(1) "Wages", as used in this section, shall not include remuneration in excess of the taxable wage base established by law paid to an individual by a single employer in a calendar year with the following exceptions:

(A) In cases of an acquisition of the organization, trade, or business of an employer, or the acquisition of a distinct and segregable portion of such business, the remuneration paid to an individual by the predecessor will be combined with remuneration paid to the same individual by the successor in the same calendar year in which the acquisition occurs to determine the taxable wage base limitation.

(B) The remuneration paid by an employer to an employee in another state will be combined with the remuneration paid by the same employer to the same employee in the same calendar year in this state to determine the taxable wage base limitation.

(2) Concurrent with the quarterly contribution report, each employer shall be required to file a wage report. The wage report shall show the total remuneration paid for covered employment to each employee in any calendar quarter. Total remuneration includes taxable wages as well as remuneration in excess of taxable wages paid to each individual in a calendar year.

646 IAC 3-1-2 Reports and contributions due for entire calendar year; newly qualified employers

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 2. (a) Reports and contributions from an employer are required for the entire calendar year in which the employer first becomes subject to the law. The due date of contributions and reports for the quarter or quarters preceding the quarter in which the employing unit qualifies as an employer is the date upon which the employing unit actually acquired the status of an employer within the meaning of the law; however, interest and penalty shall not accrue on past quarters until thirty (30) days after such date.

(b) The reference to contributions in subsection (a) shall not apply to those employers that have elected to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions. However, the reference to reports applies to all employers. (Department of Workforce Development; Rule 3; filed Dec 13, 1945, 10:40 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1947, p. 866; filed Dec 30, 1958, 2:00 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1959, p. 85; filed Sep 25, 1969, 2:50 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1970, p. 72; filed Jul 13, 1972, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1973, p. 155; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1908; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-1-2) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-1-2) by P.L. 105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

646 IAC 3-1-3 “Nothing to report”

 Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 3. Every qualified employer is required to send in quarterly contribution reports even if no contributions are due. Reports must be sent to the department until the director grants permission to the employer to discontinue filing. If the employer finds that in a particular quarter no payroll has been incurred and no contributions are due, then the employer shall file a contribution report marked “Nothing to Report”. (Department of Workforce Development; Rule 4; filed Dec 13, 1945, 10:40 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1947, p. 866; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1908; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-1-3) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-1-3) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

646 IAC 3-1-4 Correction of errors; additional contributions due; credits or refunds

 Affected: IC 22-4; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 4. (a) No contribution report when once accepted will be returned to the employer for correction. Whenever it is discovered that an error has been made in filing a contribution report, the employer shall submit a detailed explanation indicating the reason for such error. The explanation shall include the:

- (1) name;
- (2) Social Security numbers;
- (3) amount reported;
- (4) correct amount; and
- (5) difference by quarters;

for each employee affected. This adjustment may reflect either an underpayment or overpayment of contributions to the department. If additional contributions are due by reason of an underpayment, remittance plus interest from the due date must be included. If a credit or refund results from an overpayment, upon approval by the department, a credit memo will be issued, which may be taken on the subsequent quarterly report. If the refund is greater than the amount due on the subsequent quarterly report, a claim for refund shall be filed by the employer as provided in this section. An employer shall be notified when it is discovered that an overpayment has been made to the account and shall be given an opportunity to file a claim for refund in the amount of any such overpayment.

(b) No claim for refund shall be considered unless the employer claiming such refund has made application to the director upon the form prescribed by the department. This form must set forth the following:

- (1) The amount of overpayment claimed.
- (2) The period covered by the report upon which the overpayment was made.
- (3) The full reason upon which the claim is based.

(c) A claim for refund must be executed by the person to whom the claim is alleged to be due. A claim for refund by a corporation must be made in the name of the corporation and executed by an officer thereof. A fiduciary will be required to furnish a certified copy of appointment to accompany a claim for refund on contributions not paid in fiduciary capacity. 646 IAC 3-1-5 Meals and lodging as wages; valuation

 Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 5. (a) Meals and lodging allowed by an employer to employees as increased or additional remuneration shall be deemed wages subject to contribution.

(b) Where the employer provides a fixed amount to the employee for meals and lodging, that fixed amount shall be considered the amount of additional remuneration.

(c) Where a fixed amount is not allowed by the employer to the employee, the amount of additional remuneration will be the actual cost of the meals and lodging.

(d) Provided, however, that where meals and lodging are furnished by the employer, on the premises of the employer, and for the convenience of the employer, then those meals and lodging and the value thereof are not considered remuneration subject to contributions.

(e) The following are examples of meals not considered taxable remuneration:

(1) An employer owns an apartment project. He hires a man to act as maintenance man and his wife to handle rentals and show units to prospective renters. As these employees are expected to be on twenty-four (24) hour call, the employer furnishes them with an apartment in addition to their normal remuneration. As the apartment is furnished for the convenience of the employer, the value of the apartment is not considered taxable remuneration to the employees.

(2) A restaurant owner provides meals to his waitresses and prefers that they remain on the premises during rush hours in the event of an unusually large amount of customers. As these meals are provided for the convenience of the employer, they are not considered taxable remuneration.

(Department of Workforce Development; Rule 8; filed Dec 13, 1945, 10:40 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1947, p. 869; filed Mar 31, 1948, 9:55 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1949, p. 32; filed Jul 22, 1953, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1954, p. 37; filed Feb 11, 1958, 2:00 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1959, p. 74; filed Dec 6, 1966, 11:15 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1967, p. 43; filed Sep 25, 1969, 2:50 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1970, p. 73; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1909; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-1-5) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-1-5) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

646 IAC 3-1-6 Termination or transfer of business; notice; final report; attachment of successor's assets

Affected: IC 22-4; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 6. (a) Where the status of an employer is changed by cessation or disposition of business or appointment of a receiver, trustee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other fiduciary, the employer shall immediately notify the department, and contributions with respect to wages for employment up to and including the date of the change of status and with respect to amounts which would otherwise constitute wages, as defined in IC 22-4, except for nonpayment thereof are immediately due and payable. The employer shall immediately file necessary contribution and wage reports, showing all remuneration of each of his employees for employment occurring in the calendar quarter in which the change of status occurred, and all previous unreported contributions and remuneration. Reports covering the calendar quarter in which the change of status occurred shall be marked "final report".

(b) Whenever an employer disposes of his organization, trade, or business, in whole or in part, it shall be the duty of both the employer and his successor to notify the department thereof on the forms prescribed by the department. If the disposing employer is a corporation, the employer shall follow the dissolution procedure described in IC 22-4-32-23. (Department of Workforce Development; Rule 10; filed Dec 13, 1945, 10:40 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1947, p. 870; filed Mar 31, 1948, 9:55 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1949, p. 32; filed Jan 17, 1966, 11:50 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1967, p. 31; filed Sep 25, 1969, 2:50 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1970, p. 73; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1910; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-1-6) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-1-6) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

646 IAC 3-1-7 Successor employers; notice; transfer of experience account; liability for contributions

Affected: IC 22-4-7-1; IC 22-4-7-2; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 7. (a) The director is authorized to determine when there has been an acquisition of the organization, trade, or business of an employer within the meaning of IC 22-4-7-2(a) through IC 22-4-7-2(b) and IC 22-4-10-6. Each employer who disposes of all or a part of its organization, trade, or business and the successor to that business, or part of that business, shall immediately report the transaction to the department and execute prescribed forms. If the director finds that there has been an acquisition under IC 22-4-7-2(a) by an employing unit not previously an employer within the meaning of IC 22-4-7-1 or IC 22-4-7-2, the disposing employer's entire experience account shall be transferred to the successor and the successor shall immediately assume the position of the disposing employer with respect to the resources and liabilities reflected by the experience account as if no change had occurred. If the director finds that, within the meaning of IC 22-4-7-2(a), there had been an acquisition from an employer by an employer already subject to contribution, the disposing employer's experience account shall be transferred to the successor, but the successor shall retain its rate of contribution. Provided, however, should no reports be received by the director, then at the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of the acquisition, transfer may be made by the director upon his own motion. Whenever a total transfer is made, the status of the original employer as an employer under IC 22-4 is terminated unless and until such employer subsequently qualifies under IC 22-4-7-1 or IC 22-4-7-2.

(b) The acquiring employer, if not previously a subject employer shall, as of the date of acquisition, become liable for contributions with respect to all wages paid to his own employees during the entire calendar year. If the acquiring employer becomes liable by reason of the acquisition, and acquires all or part of the predecessor's experience account, it shall, beginning with the first day of the calendar quarter in which the acquisition occurs, pay contributions at the rate applicable to the predecessor employer at the time of the acquisition until its rate is computed for the next succeeding calendar year. Provided, however, that if the successor employer simultaneously acquires all or part of the experience balance of two (2) or more employers, its rate, beginning with the first day of the calendar quarter in which the acquisitions occurred, shall be the highest rate applicable to the experience accounts totally acquired. Provided further, that if the successor employer had any employment prior to the date of acquisition upon which contributions were owed under IC 22-4-9-1, its rate of contribution from the first of such year to the first day of the calendar quarter in which the acquisition occurred shall be two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%). If such employer becomes liable by reason of an acquisition within the meaning of IC 22-4-7-2(b), and does not acquire a part of the experience account of the disposer, its rate shall be two and seven-tenths percent (2.7%) until a higher or lower rate is established under IC 22-4-11-2 and IC 22-4-11-3. If the acquiring employer was an employer at the time of the acquisition, the contribution rate assigned to it for that year shall continue throughout the remainder of the year.

(c) Where there is no transfer of an account to a successor and an employer has legally terminated its liability, then the employer's account shall be terminated and closed. Provided, however, that if that employer again becomes subject to the law within four (4) years of the date of termination of its account, then it shall resume its former position with respect to the resources and liabilities of the experience account and shall be entitled to an experience rate computation under IC 22-4-11-2 and IC 22-4-11-3 if benefits have been payable from and chargeable to its experience account throughout the thirty-six (36) months immediately preceding the computation date.

(d) Domestic employment, as defined in IC 22-4-7-2(i) will not be considered in the transfer of an experience account under IC 22-4-7-2(a) or IC 22-4-7-2(b). The disposer will retain the domestic portion of its experience account and will be assigned a new reporting number. (Department of Workforce Development; Rule 11; filed Dec 13, 1945, 10:40 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1947, p. 871; filed Mar 31, 1948, 9:55 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1949, p. 32; filed Jul 22, 1953, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1954, p. 37; filed Jun 15, 1955, 9:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1956, p. 211; filed Sep 12, 1956, 12:30 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1957, p. 110; filed Sep 25, 1969, 2:50 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1970, p. 74; filed Aug 19, 1971, 3:30 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1972, p. 31; filed Jul 13, 1972, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1973, p. 155; filed Nov 25, 1975, 3:05 p.m.: Rules and Regs. 1976, p. 103; filed Mar 28, 1978, 8:57 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1979, p. 60; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1910; errata filed Jul 16, 1992, 2:00 p.m.: 15 IR 2596; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-1-7) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-1-7) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

Sec. 8. Any employer who has disposed of a segregable portion of his business and a part of the resources and liabilities of his experience account is assumed by the acquirer shall cease to be an employer at the end of the year in which the disposition occurred only if the department finds that the portion retained by the disposer would not have qualified the employer under IC 22-4-7-1 if it had constituted the disposer's entire organization, trade, or business throughout such calendar year; provided, that no employer thus disposing of a segregable portion of its organization, trade, or business shall cease to be an employer at the end of the first year. The amounts paid for such absences shall be considered remuneration and deductible income.

(b) Sickness or accident disability payments as referred to in IC 22-4-4-2(b) means payments made to or on behalf of an individual after his employment relationship has been severed by disabling sickness or accident, and it is anticipated that he will not return to employment. 646 IAC 3-1-10 Group accounts

Sec. 10. If two (2) or more employers elect to form a group account under IC 22-4-10-1(c), the department will retain separate account numbers for each employer; however, a common mailing address will be assigned to each account. Separate reports will be required, but all billings will be mailed to the designated common mailing address, and only one (1) payment will be required to cover all billings sent to members of the group account. Affected: IC 22-4-10-1; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 11. Pursuant to the authority granted by IC 22-4-10-1 the Board, when schedule A is in effect, may accelerate tax payments. When the Board determines that tax payments should be accelerated under the conditions set forth in the law, each subject employer will be notified by regular mail not less than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the date the accelerated contribution is due. The employer shall estimate the amount of the accelerated tax payment based upon its projection of its estimated payroll for the accelerated quarter, and will remit that amount in whole or in a percentage of the whole as determined by the Board.

Any amount of estimated accelerated payment which exceeds the amount of tax actually owed by any employer for the quarter to which the acceleration applies shall not be refunded to that employer but shall be applied as a credit against future liability. If the amount of estimated accelerated tax is less than that actually owed by any employer for the quarter to which the acceleration applies, the difference between the estimated tax paid and the actual tax owed shall be paid at the time the tax is normally due for that quarter which was accelerated.

The enforcement procedures applicable to regular tax contributions shall apply to accelerated contributions. (c) A member of a board of directors is in employment, however, if he or she performs services for remuneration for the corporation other than those required by attendance at, and participation in, the meetings of the board of directors.

(d) The remuneration considered wages in subsection (a) shall be deemed wages paid by a professional employer organization, and the corporate officer of a client business entity shall be deemed the employee of the professional employer organization, in the event the services performed as a corporate officer are subject to a written agreement between the professional employer organization and the client business entity as provided in 646 IAC 3-4-11. 646 IAC 3-5-3 Truckers and draymen

 Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 3. Employee and His Equipment. Where an employing unit contracts with a trucker or drayman for the transportation or delivery of its merchandise other than on an hourly, salary or commission basis, and such trucker or drayman furnishes his own equipment and is the master of his own time and effort, the services so performed are not considered employment.

However, if an employing unit employs such an individual and exercises sufficient control over him to constitute such individual an employee, and compensates him in amounts including wages and rentals for the equipment, the reasonable rental value of the equipment may be determined and deducted for contribution purposes in cases where no agreement has been made for the allocation of any portion of such payments as rental for equipment.

Example: A is a construction contractor and hires B with his dump truck to haul gravel under the supervision of A's foreman. A pays B $10 per day for the use of such truck and for B's services. The reasonable rental value of the truck may be deducted and contributions paid only on remuneration for the personal services of B.

646 IAC 3-5-4 Factory demonstrators

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3
 Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 4. Factory Demonstrators in Stores. Demonstrators who are placed by a manufacturer in department and specialty stores to aid in the sale of the specialized products of such manufacturer, who are engaged by the manufacturer, who are paid directly or indirectly by the manufacturer, and who work under the direction of the manufacturer, although this direction may be delegated to the retailer, are in the employment of the manufacturer. If the retailer, not acting as an agent for the manufacturer, engages the demonstrator, and the demonstrator works under the direction of the retailer and receives his remuneration directly from the retailer, the retailer is the employer. If the wages are paid in part by the manufacturer and in part by the retailer, the demonstrator is in the employment of both manufacturer and retailer. Each is required to pay contributions on that part of the remuneration which he pays; provided, that one or both, as the case may be, are employers under the law. 646 IAC 3-6-5 Churches and religious organizations

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4-8-2; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 5. (a) As used in this rule, the following definitions under IC 22-4-8-2(j)(3)(A) apply:

(1) "Church" is used in its limited sense and is synonymous with an individual house of worship maintained by a particular congregation.

(2) "Convention" and "association" refer to formal and informal groups of churches, clergy, or laymen, whether of a continuing nature or meeting periodically, whose purpose is primarily concerned with religious and denominational matters of the group or groups represented. However, the exclusion does not apply to service performed for a facility or organization which may be religious in orientation unless it is operated primarily for religious purposes and is operated by a church (or a convention or association of churches). Thus, the service of a janitor of a church is excluded, but the service of a janitor for a separately operated college, day care center, public book store, although they may be church related, is covered.

(b) Service for a college devoted primarily to the preparation of students for the ministry is exempt, as is the service for a novitiate or a house of study training candidates to become members of a religious order. On the other hand, a church related charitable organization, such as an orphanage or home for the aged, is not considered to be operated primarily for religious purposes.

(c) Under IC 22-4-8-2(j)(3)(B), the exclusion of service performed by ministers in the exercise of their ministry and by members of a religious order in performing the duties required by such order applies only when such service is performed for nonprofit organizations required to be covered by the state law.

(d) A minister is "ordained, commissioned, or licensed" if he has been vested with ministerial status in accordance with the procedure followed by the particular church denomination. However, he does not have to be connected with a congregation. Ministerial authority continues until revoked by the church.

(e) "Exercise of the ministry" includes the following:

(1) The conduct of religious worship and the ministrations of sacerdotal functions.

(2) Service performed in the control, conduct, and maintenance of:

(A) a religious organization under the authority of a religious body constituting a church or church denomination; or

(B) an organization operated as an integral agency of such a religious organization or of a church or church denomination.

(3) Service performed for any organization under an assignment or designation by a church (not including cases in which a church merely helps a minister by recommending him for a position involving nonministerial services for an organization not connected with the church).

(4) Missionary service or administrative work in the employ of a missionary organization.

(f) "Control, conduct, and maintenance" of an organization does not include services such as operating an elevator or being a janitor, but refers to services performed in the directing, management, or promotion of the activities of the organization.

(g) As established in subsection (e), service of a clergyman as a chaplain in an orphanage or in a retirement home is excluded since his service is in the exercise of his ministry as is the service of members of a teaching or nursing order who are engaged in teaching or nursing. In the case of a member of a religious order, the criterion is whether the order requires the performance of such service. (Department of Workforce Development; PT II, Reg 406; filed Jul 13, 1972, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1973, p. 160; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1917; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-5-6) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-6-5) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

Rule 7. Exempt Employers and Employees

646 IAC 3-7-1 Agricultural labor; exempt services

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4-7-2; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 1. (a) Agricultural labor does not include services performed in connection with forestry, lumbering, or landscaping.

(b) Greenhouses and other similar structures used primarily for other purposes, for example, display, storage, and fabrication of wreaths, corsages, and bouquets, do not constitute farms.

(c) Services performed for the owner or tenant or operator of one (1) or more farms in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of any of such farms or its tools or equipment are excepted as agricultural labor, provided the major part of such services is performed on a farm. Such services may include, for example, services performed by carpenters, painters, mechanics, farm supervisors, irrigation engineers, bookkeepers, and other skilled and semiskilled workers which contribute in any way to the conduct of the farm or farms, as such, operated by the person employing them, as distinguished from any other enterprise in which such person may be engaged. Since such services must be performed in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of the farm, the exception does not extend to services performed for a commercial painting concern, for example, which contracts with a farmer to renovate his farm properties.

(d) Exempt services do not include services performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing or in connection with any commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption. Moreover, since the excepted services must be rendered in the actual handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivery to storage or to market, or to a carrier for transportation to market, of the commodity, such services do not, for example, include services performed as stenographers, bookkeepers, clerks, and other office employees, even though such services may be in connection with such activities, except to the extent that the services of such individuals are performed in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm and are rendered in major part on a farm.

(e) Subsequent to December 31, 1977, the exemption of agricultural employment does not apply to those employers meeting the requirements of IC 22-4-7-2(e). (Department of Workforce Development; Reg 505; filed Dec 13, 1945, 10:40 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1947, p. 887; filed Jul 13, 1972, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1973, p. 161; filed Mar 28, 1978, 8:57 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1979, p. 65; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1918; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-6-2) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-7-1) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

646 IAC 3-7-2 Domestic service; exempt services

Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 2. (a) Services of a household nature performed by an individual in or about the private home of the person by whom he is employed or performed in or about the club rooms or house of a local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority by which he is employed are included within the term "domestic service".

(b) As used in this section, a private home is the fixed place of abode of an individual or family.

(c) As used in this section, a local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority does not include an alumni club or chapter.

(d) If the home is utilized primarily for the purpose of supplying board or lodging to the public as a business enterprise, it ceases to be a private home and the services performed therein are not excepted. Likewise, if the club rooms or house of a local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority is used primarily for such purposes, the services performed therein are not within the exception.

(e) The services described in subsection (a) are not within the exception if performed in or about rooming or lodging houses, boarding houses, clubs (except local college clubs), hotels, or commercial offices of establishments.

(f) Services performed as a private secretary, even though performed in the employer's home, are not within the exception. (Department of Workforce Development; Reg 506; filed Dec 13, 1945, 10:40 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1947, p. 889; filed Mar 28, 1978, 8:57 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1979, p. 66; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1919; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-6-3) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-7-2) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

646 IAC 3-7-3 Services not in the course of a trade or business

Affected: IC 22-4; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 3. "Not in the course of the employing unit's trade or business" includes service that does not promote or advance the trade or business of the employer. Service which does not promote or advance the employing unit's trade or business is excepted from employment, unless the cash remuneration paid for such service performed by an individual in a calendar quarter is fifty dollars ($50) or more and the individual is employed in the performance of such service during some portion of a day, for at least twenty-four (24) days in such calendar quarter, or in the preceding calendar quarter. The following are examples of such service:

(1) A's business is that of operating a sawmill. He employs B, a carpenter, at an hourly wage to repair his home. B works irregularly and spends the greater part of two (2) days in completing the work. Since B's labor is casual and is not in the course of A's trade or business, such services are excepted, and B is not considered in "employment" as defined under IC 22-4.

(2) A's business is that of operating a sawmill. He employs B, a carpenter, to repair his home. During the month of March, B worked two (2) hours on each of twenty-seven (27) days, earning one hundred eight dollars ($108) at an hourly wage of two dollars ($2). B completed the repairs after working two (2) hours on each of fourteen (14) days during the month of April, earning fifty-six dollars ($56). B's services, although not in the course of A's business, constituted employment during the first quarter because he worked on each of twenty-seven (27) days and earned one hundred eight dollars ($108). His services during the second quarter also constituted employment, even though he worked only fourteen (14) days, because he earned fifty-six dollars ($56) and was in employment during the preceding quarter. Casual labor, that is, labor which is occasional, incidental, or irregular, but which is in the course of the employer's trade or business, does not come within the exception stated in subdivision (1).

(3) C's business is that of operating a sawmill. He employs D for two (2) hours, at an hourly wage, to remove sawdust from his mill. D's labor is casual since it is occasional, incidental, or irregular, but it is in the course of C's trade or business and is not excepted, and D is considered in "employment" as defined under IC 22-4.

(4) E is engaged in the business of operating a department store. He employs additional clerks for short periods. While the services of the clerks may be casual, they are in the course of the employer's trade or business and therefore are not excepted, and such additional clerks are considered in "employment" as defined under IC 22-4. Casual labor performed for a corporation does not come within this exception.

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 5. Maritime Service. The word, "vessel," includes every description of watercraft or other contrivance used as a means of transportation on water.

The term, "American vessel," means (a) any vessel documented or numbered under the laws of the United States and (b) any vessel which is neither documented or numbered under the laws of the United States nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if its crew is employed solely by one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or any state.

Dredges used for navigation and transportation in deepening and removing obstructions from channels, rivers, or other waterways, are "vessels."

The expression, "officer or member of the crew," includes the master or officer in charge of the vessel, however designated, and every individual, subject to his authority, serving on board and contributing in any way to the operation and welfare of the vessel, and includes, for example, the services rendered by the master, mate, pilots, pursers, surgeons, stewards, engineers, firemen, cooks, clerks, carpenters, deck hands, porters, and chambermaids, and by fishermen on fishing vessels. 646 IAC 3-7-7 Insurance agents and solicitors

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3
 Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 7. Insurance Agents and Solicitors. Services performed by an individual as an insurance agent or insurance solicitor are excepted, provided such services are performed solely for commissions.

If all or any part of the remuneration of an individual for services performed as an insurance agent or insurance solicitor is a salary, none of his services are excepted and his total remuneration (for example, salary, or salary and commissions) is included for the purposes of computing contributions. 646 IAC 3-7-9 Partially exempt services

 Affected: IC 22-4-8-3; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 9. (a) In determining coverage or exemption of services under IC 22-4-8-3(s), a “pay period” is the period, of not more than thirty-one (31) consecutive calendar days, for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the individual by the employing unit. If the periods for which payments of remuneration are made to the individual by an employing unit are of uniform duration, each period constitutes a pay period. If, however, the periods occasionally vary in duration, the pay period is the period for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the individual by an employing unit, even though that period does not coincide with the actual period for which a particular payment of remuneration is made. For example, if an employing unit ordinarily pays a particular individual for each calendar week at the end of the week, but the individual receives a payment in the middle of the week for the portion of the week already elapsed and receives the remainder at the end of the week, the pay period is still the calendar week; or if, instead, that individual is sent on a trip by the employing unit and receives, at the end of the third week, a single remuneration payment for three (3) weeks' services, the pay period is still the calendar week.

(b) If there is only one (1) period, and such period does not exceed thirty-one (31) consecutive calendar days, for which a payment of remuneration is made to the individual by the employing unit, such period is deemed to be a pay period.

(c) This rule does not apply:

(1) with respect to any services performed by the individual for an employing unit if the periods for which the employing unit makes payments of remuneration to the individual vary to the extent that there is no period for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the individual;

(2) with respect to any services performed by the individual for the employing unit if the period for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the individual by the employing unit exceeds thirty-one (31) consecutive calendar days; or

(3) with respect to any service performed by the individual for the employing unit during a pay period if any of such service is excepted under IC 22-4-8-3(b).

(d) If, during any period for which an employing unit makes a payment of remuneration to an individual, only a portion of the individual's services constitutes employment, but this rule is not applicable, contributions are due with respect to such services as constitute employment. (b) The combining of the remuneration paid to an individual by separate employers, in establishing the taxable wage base limitation, applies only in successorship cases.

(c) Under IC 22-4-4-2, remuneration paid an employee in another state is considered in determining the taxable wage base limitation for a calendar year, if wages are paid to the same employee by the same employer in this state during a calendar year. Sec. 2. (a) IC 22-4-4-2(b)(4) excludes from the definition of wages amounts paid by an employer to an employee (in absence of a plan or system) for sickness or accident disability, or medical or hospitalization expense, after the expiration of six (6) calendar months following the last calendar month in which the employee performed services for the employer. However, in the absence of a plan or system by the employer to provide for such payments, sick or accident pay will be deemed wages for the first six (6) months following the last month of employment.

Under this section, a payment made by an employer into a trust or annuity plan is excluded from wages at the time of such payment if the trust is tax exempt or the annuity plan meets the requirements of Section 401(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code at such time. A payment to, or on behalf of, an employee from a trust or under an annuity plan is also excluded from wages if the trust is tax exempt or the annuity plan meets the requirements of Section 401(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code at the time of the payment to, or on behalf of, the employee. 646 IAC 3-9-1 Wages subject to contribution; constructive payment

 Affected: IC 22-4-10-6; IC 22-4-10-7; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 1. (a) Contributions are payable upon the total wages paid within a calendar year for employment performed, but the term "total wages" means only the first seven thousand dollars ($7,000) paid within a calendar year to an individual by a single employer or his predecessor within such calendar year and irrespective of the year within which the services are performed. As used in this subsection, "annual payroll" means the total wages, subject to such seven thousand dollars ($7,000) limitation, paid by an employer during the twelve (12) month period ending on the computation date in any year, including wages paid by any other employer whose account has been assumed by such employer under IC 22-4-10-6 and IC 22-4-10-7.

(b) Wages shall be deemed paid when either actually or constructively paid. Wages shall be deemed constructively paid when they are credited to the account of or set apart for an individual who has performed services so that they may be drawn upon at any time by him, although not then actually reduced to his possession. To constitute payment in such cases, the wages must be credited to or set apart for the employee without any substantial limitation as to the time or manner of payment or condition upon which payment is to be made and must be made available to him so they may be drawn at any time and their payment brought within his control and disposition. Sec. 2. (a) Every employer shall, upon request, furnish his employees and his former employees with information necessary for them to obtain their full rights and benefits under IC 22-4.

(b) To be considered a valid document in determining benefit rights of an individual, any informational report or protest directed by an employer to the department regarding an employee or former employee shall include the correct Social Security number of the individual.

(c) An eligibility information report, either on the form supplied by the department or any other document which supplies the required information, shall be submitted to the claim-holding local office within twenty (20) calendar days from the mailing of notice that a former employee has filed an initial or additional claim for unemployment compensation and he was separated from his employment under any of the following conditions:

- (4) Left work voluntarily without good cause in connection with the work.
- (5) Was discharged for just cause.

If an eligibility information report is not received by the department, it will be found that the individual involved was separated because no work was available. However, a determination of eligibility will be issued in those cases where the claimant's statement of reason for separation raises an issue of eligibility.

(e) In those initial claims or reopened claims in which the employer has not responded within the time specified by IC 22-4-17-

2, and in which an initial determination is required, the department may proceed to determine the validity of the claim in question upon the best information available and, for the purpose of the initial determination, it shall be conclusive with respect to any data which should otherwise have been submitted, and benefits paid and charged to the employer's experience or reimbursable account on the basis of such initial determination, in the absence of fraud, shall be deemed benefits properly paid and properly charged.

(f) When both the notice of the filing of an initial claim and the notice of benefit liability are mailed to an employer, the period during which the employer must furnish an eligibility information report shall run from the date the first of such notices was mailed.

(g) An eligibility information report should be submitted to the claim-holding office immediately if the individual refuses work after the employing unit has received notice of the filing of a claim.

(h) It is the responsibility of the employer to inform his partially unemployed employees of any potential rights they may have for partial benefits. When an individual becomes partially unemployed, as established under section 9 of this rule, the employer shall furnish the employee an initial low wage notice if:

(1) the employee has worked less than full time; and

(2) the employee has earned less than the maximum weekly benefit amount established under IC 22-4-12-2.

The initial low wage notice must be furnished to the employee within ten (10) days after the end of the employee's normal pay period in which the ending date of the first week of partial unemployment falls. Only one (1) initial low wage notice need be provided during an employee's benefit year.

(i) After the employer has received notice from the department to file weekly low wage reports, the reports must be furnished to the employee for each week in which the employee earns less than his or her weekly benefit amount because of lack of work. The weekly low wage notice must be furnished to the employee within ten (10) days after the end of the employee's normal pay period in which the ending date of the week of partial unemployment falls. The employer must continue to provide the weekly low wage report until notified by the department to stop.

(j) If an employer fails to furnish the required information within ten (10) days, benefits may be paid to the employee based upon his certified statement.

(k) The low wage notice and report may be filed either on the form provided by the department or by any other written instrument that contains the necessary information.

(l) The employer is responsible for making reports to the department of any retroactive payments of deductible income. The report may be made on the form supplied by the department or by any other written instrument which contains the necessary information.

(m) When individuals are separated from employment by reason of a labor dispute, the employer shall report the dispute to the employment office serving the territory, together with information showing the approximate number of individuals involved. Affected: IC 22-4-12-2; IC 22-4-15-1; IC 22-4-15-2; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 16. In cases where the actual computed weekly benefit amount of the individual is less than the statutory minimum, and if an earnings requirement is imposed by a disqualification under IC 22-4-15-1 or IC 22-4-15-2, the earnings requirement in those sections means the actual computed weekly benefit amount. Sec. 17. In matters adjudicated under IC 22-4-13-1(c), an employer's experience or reimbursable account shall not be relieved unless a claims deputy determines that the offer of work constituted an offer of suitable work within the meaning of IC 22-4-15-2, and that the offer of work made by the employing unit:

- (1) identified the individual by name and Social Security number;

646 IAC 3-10-18 Effort to secure full-time work by claimant

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4-14-2; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 18. (a) "Effort to secure full-time work", as discussed in this section, shall require a claimant to show that he has, in addition to registering for work under IC 22-4-14-2, followed a course of action which, with respect to individuals in the same or similar circumstances as the claimant, ordinarily results in the securing of suitable full-time work, considering the customary methods of securing work in occupations which are suitable for the claimant and the current condition of the labor market.

(b) A claimant shall be ineligible for unemployment compensation benefits for any period for which the department finds that he has failed to make effort to secure full-time work. The facts and circumstances in each case shall be considered in determining whether effort to secure full-time work has been made. The following actions may be considered efforts to secure full-time work if found by the department to constitute a reasonable means of securing full-time work by the claimant, under the facts and circumstances of his particular situation:

- (1) Registering with the claimant's union hiring or placement facility.
- (2) Registering with a placement facility of the claimant's professional organization.
- (3) Making application with such employers as may reasonably be expected to have openings suitable to the claimant.
- (4) Registering with a placement facility of a school, college, or university if one is available to the claimant in his occupation or profession.
- (5) Making application or taking examination for openings in the civil service of a government unit with reasonable prospects of suitable full-time work for the claimant.
- (6) Responding to appropriate want ads for work which appears suitable to the claimant.
- (7) Any other action which the department finds to constitute an effective means of securing full-time work suitable to the claimant.

(c) No claimant, however, shall be denied benefits solely on the grounds that he has failed or refused to register with a private employment agency or at any other placement facility which charges the job seeker a fee for its services.

(d) A claimant shall be deemed to have failed to make an effort to secure full-time work if the department finds that he has followed a course of action designed to discourage prospective employers from hiring him in suitable work.

(e) Notwithstanding subsections (a) through (d), if the department finds that for a particular locality, occupation, or class of claimant during a certain interval, the prospects of suitable full-time job openings other than those listed with the public employment service are so remote that any effort to secure work other than by registration for work under IC 22-4-14-2 would be fruitless to the claimant and burdensome to employers, then such registration by the claimant shall be deemed an effort to secure work. In applying these conditions, the department shall consider whether such claimant has a reasonable assurance of reemployment and, if so, the length of the prospective period of unemployment. In determining whether or not a claimant has a reasonable assurance of reemployment, the department shall consider whether the claimant has been temporarily or permanently laid off from his work and, if temporarily laid off, the length of the prospective period of unemployment resulting from such layoff.

(f) This rule does not apply to claimants applying for benefits for a week of partial unemployment. (Department of Workforce Development; Reg 826; filed Jun 15, 1951, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1952, p. 122; filed Nov 17, 1971, 9:50 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1972, p. 26; filed Jul 13, 1972, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1973, p. 177; filed Aug 30, 1983, 8:36 a.m.: 6 IR 1924; filed Apr 30,

Sec. 20. (a) Under IC 22-4-14-3(c), an individual shall not be deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week because the individual is enrolled in, and making satisfactory progress in, training with approval of the department. As defined in this section, "training" means any course of education with the primary purpose of training the applicant in skills that will make the individual more employable. Neither shall an individual be disqualified for refusal of an offer of work under IC 22-4-15-2 if, as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to discontinue training into which the individual had entered with the approval of the department. The board, or its duly authorized representative, may approve such course for an individual only if it finds that the individual is in training which is provided through Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA), the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), vocational rehabilitation, or the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training and the joint apprenticeship committee, or the board finds that all of the following conditions are met:

- (1) The individual is indefinitely unemployed.
- (2) A training course exists for the individual.

(3) The training course is conducted during a sufficient number of hours, thereby ensuring that requirements of the course are completed in a reasonable length of time.

(4) The training course relates to an occupation or skill for which there are, or are expected to be, reasonable work opportunities in the labor market or the individual is willing to relocate to an area in which such opportunities exist.

(5) The training course is offered by a competent and reliable agency, educational institution, or employing unit.

(b) In determining whether a training course is offered by a competent and reliable agency, educational institution, or employing unit, the board, or its duly authorized representative, shall give full weight to whether such agency, institution, or employing unit has been:

(1) established by law and financed in whole or in part by public funds; or

(2) approved or regulated by any state regulatory board, agency, or commission.

Affected: IC 22-4-15-1; IC 22-4.1

Sec. 21. (a) Wage credits earned from an employer, whether in employment in one (1) or more different departments, factories, plants, or establishments, are from a single employer since an employer has only one (1) experience account covering all his operations.

(b) If an employer requires an employee of a department, factory, plant, or establishment to terminate his employment in one (1) department, factory, plant, or establishment, for the purpose of continuing his employment in another department, factory, plant, or establishment of the same employer, such termination is not a separation under IC 22-4-15-1. (Department of Workforce Development; PT II, Reg 832; filed Jul 13, 1972, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1973, p. 171; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1937; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-9-26) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-10-21) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

Benefits based on subsequent wage credits are chargeable to the employer's experience account.

(b) Benefits properly paid subsequent to a nondisqualifying separation but prior to a disqualifying separation resulting in a wage credit cancellation under IC 22-4-15-6 are proper charges to the employer's experience account. (Department of Workforce Development; PT II, Reg 833; filed Jul 13, 1972, 11:00 a.m.: Rules and Regs. 1973, p. 171; filed Apr 30, 1992, 5:00 p.m.: 15 IR 1937; readopted filed Aug 31, 2001, 11:25 a.m.: 25 IR 203) NOTE: Transferred from the Indiana Unemployment Insurance Board (640 IAC 1-9-27) to the Department of Workforce Development (646 IAC 3-10-22) by P.L.105-1994, SECTION 5, effective July 1, 1994.

646 IAC 3-12-3 Conduct of hearings before administrative law judge

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 3. (a) All hearings held before an administrative law judge shall be held at the local office serving the claimant's last employer unless otherwise directed by the executive director. Where the claimant's residence is at a considerable distance from the place of last employment, the claimant shall be given a fair opportunity to present his evidence at a continued hearing to be held at or near the local office nearest his place of residence. Due notice of such continued hearing shall be given to the interested parties.

(b) All hearings shall be conducted informally in order to determine the substantial rights of the parties. The parties may present evidence as the administrative law judge deems necessary for determining the substantial rights of the parties. The parties to the appeal may appear in person, by attorney, or duly authorized agent or representative, under section 12 of this rule, and shall have the right to examine their own witnesses, present evidence, and cross-examine witnesses of the opposing party. Any administrative law judge shall have the right to examine all witnesses and may require the parties to produce any available evidence he may deem necessary for proper determination of the case. Where either party fails to appear or where either party is not represented by an attorney or duly authorized agent, it shall be the duty of the administrative law judge to examine the party's witnesses, and to cross-examine all witnesses of the other party, in order to ensure complete presentation of the case. In general, rules of evidence and procedure for the trial of civil causes shall govern proceedings before an administrative law judge or the review board, but not to an extent as to obstruct or prevent a full presentation of fact or to jeopardize the rights of any interested party. No improper conduct shall be permitted during the progress of the hearing.

(c) When an employer or claimant is not present at any hearing before an administrative law judge or the review board but is represented by an agent or representative, the administrative law judge or the review board shall require the agent or representative to produce proof in writing signed by the claimant or employer giving the agent or representative authority to so appear for and represent that party.

(d) In general, hearsay evidence shall not be considered, but the administrative law judge shall consider all hearsay evidence as would be admissible under common law and statutory rules of evidence of courts in this state. Hearsay evidence which is not subject to a common law or statutory exception with respect to admissibility may be admitted but shall not be entitled to the same weight in reaching a decision as is direct testimony. Hearsay evidence properly objected to and not falling within a recognized exception and admitted into the record shall not form the sole basis for a decision by the administrative law judge or review board. The written application must be received not later than three (3) days before the date of the hearing. An application for a continuance of a hearing pending before an administrative law judge shall be made to the administrative law judge. If the administrative law judge is unavailable, then the application shall be made to the appeals supervisor. An application for continuance of a hearing pending before the review board shall be made to the chairman of the review board.

(b) If the party who has requested the appeal fails to appear at an administrative law judge hearing, after having received due notice, the administrative law judge may, in his discretion, dismiss the appeal and the determination from which the appeal was requested shall be deemed final unless the appeal is reinstated as provided.

(c) The review board may, in its discretion, dismiss any appeal which in its judgment has been abandoned by all interested parties, and the decision from which the appeal was taken shall be deemed final unless the appeal is reinstated as provided. No appeal shall be dismissed as abandoned if any of the interested parties appears in person or by representative at the review board hearing and refuses his consent to the dismissal.

(d) An appealing party shall be deemed to have abandoned his or her appeal to the review board if neither the party nor his or her representative personally appears at the time and place fixed for the review board hearing; except that in a proceeding before the review board to review a decision of an administrative law judge, the party appealing, or any other interested party, may, in lieu of personal appearance or representation, submit to the review board, not later than three (3) days prior to the date set for a hearing, his or her written request that the appeal be heard and decided upon the evidence in the record made before the administrative law judge.

(e) If a party failing to appear at an administrative law judge hearing shall apply within seven (7) days from the date of mailing of the decision or notice of disposition and show good cause why the case should be reinstated, the same shall be reinstated. No case shall be reinstated more than once. 646 IAC 3-13-3 Submission and approval of coverage elections under the interstate reciprocal coverage arrangement

Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 3. (a) Any employing unit may file an election to cover under the law of a single participating jurisdiction all of the services performed for him by an individual who customarily works for him in more than one (1) participating jurisdiction. An election may be filed, with respect to an individual, with any participating jurisdiction in which:

- (1) any part of the individual's services are performed;
- (2) the individual has his or her residence; or
- (3) the employing unit maintains a place of business to which the individual's services bear a reasonable relation.

(b) The agency of the elected jurisdiction shall initially approve or disapprove the election. If the agency approves the election, it shall forward a copy to the agency of each other participating jurisdiction specified, under whose unemployment compensation law the individual or individuals in question might, in the absence of the elections, be covered. Each interested agency shall approve or disapprove the election, as promptly as practicable, and shall notify the agency of the elected jurisdiction accordingly.

(c) In case its law so requires, any interested agency may, before taking action, require from the electing employing unit satisfactory evidence that the affected employees have been notified of, and have acquiesced in, the election.

(d) If the agency of the elected jurisdiction, or the agency of any interested jurisdiction, disapproves the election, the disapproving agency shall notify the elected jurisdiction and the electing employing unit of its action and of its reasons.

If the electing unit requests an earlier effective date than the beginning of the calendar quarter in which the election is submitted, the earlier date may be approved solely as to those interested jurisdictions in which the employer had no liability to pay contributions for the earlier period in question.

(b) The application of an election to any individual under this rule shall terminate, if the agency of the elected jurisdiction finds that the nature of the services customarily performed by the individual for the electing unit has changed, so that they are no longer customarily performed in more than one (1) participating jurisdiction. Such termination shall be effective at the close of the calendar quarter in which notice of the finding is mailed to all parties affected.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (b), each election approved shall remain in effect through the close of the calendar year in which it is submitted until the close of the calendar quarter in which the electing unit gives written notice of its termination to all affected agencies.

Rule 14. Liability Referee Hearings

646 IAC 3-14-1 Protest of benefit charges; hearings and decisions by liability administrative law judge

Authority: IC 22-4.1-3-3

Affected: IC 22-4.1

Sec. 1. (a) Any protest of charges made to an employer's experience account as reflected by the monthly statement issued by the department must be made in writing within fifteen (15) days after it is mailed to the employer's last known address. Unless protest is filed within the provided time, the records of the department shall be considered to be correct. The protesting employer may file either on the form provided by the department for that purpose, or any other document that shows a clear desire to protest charges. In any case, the protest must be signed by the employer. The protest may be filed either at a local office of the department or at the administrative office. When filed with the liability administrative law judge, a time, place, and date of hearing shall be set by the liability administrative law judge. The hearing shall be held only after not less than ten (10) days following the mailing of the notice of hearing. The protest filed by the employer shall contain the following:

- (1) The name and Social Security number of the claimant whose benefits, as alleged to have been charged, are protested.
- (2) The date of the receipt by the employer of the statement of benefit charges to which the protest is directed.
- (3) The week for which benefits were paid and the amount of each weekly payment, with respect to the charging of the benefits the protest is directed.
- (4) The cause or grounds for the protest and the particular fact relied upon to support the protest.

(b) By permission of the liability administrative law judge, the employer may amend its protest at any time prior to or during the course of the hearing. The liability hearing will be confined to the issues raised by the employer's protest, and the liability administrative law judge shall have no jurisdiction to determine the benefit rights of any individual to whom benefits have been paid as the result of a final determination.

(c) When a written protest to charges or a written request for relief from charges is filed by an employer by reason of benefits paid to any individual, and when the protest or request for relief is based upon a claim that the employer was not notified of the filing of the individual's claim for benefits and of the employer's liability for charges to its experience account by reason of benefits paid to that individual, then the liability administrative law judge shall hear and determine the protest or request after notice under subsections (a) through (b).

(d) The liability administrative law judge shall determine that the employer's experience account shall be relieved of charges by reason of benefits paid to an individual only when the following has been determined by the liability administrative law judge:

- (1) The individual was ineligible for benefits paid, and that the individual's eligibility for benefits could have been and would have been protested by the employer if due notice had been given the employer of the filing of the individual's claim and the employer's liability for charges to its experience account by reason of benefits paid that individual under the claim.

(2) The employer, if it had been given due notice of the filing of a claim by an individual and of the employer's liability for charges to its experience account by reason of benefits paid under the claim to the individual, could have and would have protested that individual's eligibility for benefits and could have been and would have been able to establish the ineligibility for benefits of that individual, or any disqualification for or reduction in such benefits.

(e) No employer's account shall be relieved of charges for benefits paid to any individual by reason of ineligibility claimed because of any prospective action which might have been taken by the employer, if the employer had received due notice of the filing of the claim and his or her liability for charges to his or her experience account for all or any portion of benefits paid thereunder, but relief from the charges to his or her experience account shall be granted to an employer only if the employee was ineligible for benefits or subject to a disqualification, by reason of facts which actually existed or events which actually occurred. For example, Claimant A filed a claim for benefits and benefits paid him or her were charged to experience account of Employer B as the only employer from whom claimant had earnings in his or her base period. Employer B filed a protest and request for relief of his or her account from charges for the benefits paid. Employer B claimed he or she did not receive notice of benefit liability and did not know of the filing of A's claim, nor that said Employer B's account was to be charged with benefits paid to Claimant A. The employer further claimed he or she would have made an offer of suitable work to Claimant A if due notice of filing of the claim had been duly given him or her.

(f) The employer's account shall not be relieved of charges because of failure to give the employer notice of the filing of the claim, for the claimant was not ineligible for benefits or subject to a disqualification by reason of facts which actually existed or events which actually occurred at or prior to the time of filing his or her claim. When an employer has filed a written protest to or request for relief from charges to his or her experience account for benefits which may be or have been paid to a claimant subsequent to the filing by the employer of a written protest to the payment thereof or to the eligibility for benefits of the claimant, together with a request in writing for a hearing thereon, then, and in these cases, the liability administrative law judge shall have no further jurisdiction of the proceeding until after the hearing has been held by the appellate section of the department upon the employer's original protest.
