(2) Visitors and inmates may be searched at jails where contact visiting is permitted.

(3) Body cavity searches may be conducted only by medical personnel of the same sex as the person being searched. Visitors must be given clear notice of the possibility of body cavity searches and may decline their request to visit upon receiving this notice. The grounds on which body cavity searches may be conducted shall be clearly stated.

(4) Inmates permitted to leave the jail temporarily, for any reason, shall be thoroughly searched prior to leaving and before re-entering the jail. Searches and seizures shall be conducted so as to avoid unnecessary force, embarrassment, or indignity

The addressee must be informed in writing of the amount of any funds removed.

(e) Correspondence to a person not enumerated in paragraph (c) of this section may be sealed by the inmate. - (4) Restrictions on clothing, bedding, mail, visitation, reading, and writing materials or the use of hygienic facilities, except for abuse of these;

The charged inmate may waive his right to a hearing in writing. Also, before a charge is made, the inmate and a jail official may agree to a disciplinary action in the forms of extra work or loss or limitation of privileges if no record of the conduct or disciplinary action is placed in the inmate's file. In connection with the required hearing, the inmate is entitled to:

Any finding of guilt must be supported by a preponderance of the evidence presented at the hearing. An inmate shall receive written notice of any charge against him within twenty-four (24) hours of knowledge or discovery of the alleged offense by jail officials, excepting weekends and holidays. The notice shall specify the date, time and place of the hearing; the alleged misconduct; the rule the misconduct is alleged to have violated; the right to a hearing and explanation of the hearing process.
