Sec. 15. (a) At any stage of a proceeding, if a party fails to:

(1) timely request an administrative review that is available under 465 IAC 3-2;

(2) timely request an administrative hearing under this rule; or

(3) attend or participate in a prehearing conference, hearing, or other stage of the proceeding, unless a continuance has been granted under this rule before the scheduled date;

the ALJ may serve upon all parties written notice of a proposed dismissal order, including a statement of the proposed reason or reasons for dismissal of the proceeding.

(b) Within seven (7) days after service of a proposed dismissal order, the party affected by the proposed dismissal may file a written motion requesting that the proposed dismissal not be ordered, and stating the grounds for objecting to the proposed order. During the time within which a party may file a motion under this subsection, the ALJ may adjourn the proceedings, or take any action in the proceedings that is necessary or appropriate, without participation of that party.

(c) If the party subject to the proposed dismissal order fails to file a timely written motion under subsection (b), the ALJ may issue the dismissal order without further notice. If the party has filed a timely motion under subsection (b), the ALJ may:

(1) conduct a prehearing conference or other informal proceeding to consider the proposed dismissal and objection; or

(2) enter the order or withdraw the proposed order based on undisputed facts and reasons stated in the proposed order and response motion.

Affected: IC 4-21.5-3-27; IC 31-9-2-17.8; IC 31-16-15-4.3; IC 31-19-26.5; IC 31-25-4-32; IC 31-25-4-33; IC 31-33-26-9

Sec. 16. (a) The provisions of IC 4-21.5-3-27(b), IC 4-21.5-3-27(d), IC 4-21.5-3-27(e), and IC 4-21.5-3-27(h) apply to findings, conclusions, and orders issued by an ALJ under this rule.

(b) Except as provided in subsections (d) and (e), at the conclusion of the hearing, the ALJ may request the parties, or grant a request made by a party, to submit post-hearing proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law or a post-hearing brief concerning the facts and issues presented, or both. The ALJ will specify the time limit for filing and service of post-hearing proposed findings or briefs. The time allowed for post-hearing submissions will be excluded from computation of the otherwise applicable time for the ALJ to issue a decision under this rule.

(c) Except as provided in subsections (d) and (e), the written decision of the ALJ shall be issued within ninety (90) days after conclusion of the hearing or after submission of proposed findings or briefs under subsection (b), unless the time for issuance of a decision is extended or waived:

(1) with written consent of all parties; or

(2) for good cause, as determined by the ALJ upon motion of a party or by the ALJ, and specified in a written order.

(d) In the case of a hearing involving an allegation of abuse or neglect by a child care worker or department employee, a hearing decision shall be issued within fifteen (15) days after conclusion of the hearing, unless this time limit is extended or waived:

(1) by written consent of the appellant; or

(2) for good cause based on unanticipated and unavoidable circumstances, as specified in a written order.

A request by the appellant to file post-hearing proposed findings or a brief shall constitute a waiver of the time limit for issuance of a decision under this subsection. In that event, the time limit for issuance of a written decision will be fifteen (15) days after submission of the proposed findings or brief, or any additional time that may be established by the ALJ with agreement of the appellant.

(e) In the case of a hearing concerning:

(1) a child support income withholding order under IC 31-16-15-4.3; or

(2) sanctions for nonpayment of delinquent child support obligations under IC 31-25-4-32 and IC 31-25-4-33;

a hearing decision shall be issued at or immediately following conclusion of the hearing, unless the time limit is extended or waived by written consent of both the appellant and the child support bureau of the department, and with approval of the ALJ.

(f) The ALJ's decision shall:

(1) include findings of fact and conclusions of law;

(2) specify the reasons for the decision; and

(3) identify the evidence and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies supporting the decision.

(g) The findings of fact need not include a recitation of the evidence admitted in the evidentiary hearing. Rather, the findings should contain the basic facts that support the ALJ's conclusions of law and the ultimate decision. The ALJ's conclusions of law must cite the relevant laws upon which the ultimate decision is based and relate the facts to the law.

(h) The decision of the ALJ shall be the final decision of the department. The ALJ may affirm, reverse, or modify the department's decision or remand the matter to the department for further consideration. (Department of Child Services; 465 IAC 3-3-16; filed Nov 14, 2012, 12:46 p.m.: 20121212-IR-465120404FRA)

Continuance of a hearing will be granted and the hearing rescheduled at the discretion of the ALJ upon a showing of good cause.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a request for continuance shall constitute a waiver of time deadlines otherwise applicable under this rule for scheduling and completing the hearing.

(c) A continuance under this section of a scheduled hearing requested under section 3(a) of this rule by a child care worker or department employee, that is requested by a party other than the appellant, will not be granted except upon a showing of good cause based on a reason specified in subsection (e), that could not have been known or anticipated at the time the hearing was scheduled.

(d) A continuance under this section of a scheduled hearing requested under section 3(b), 3(c), 3(d), or 3(f) of this rule will not be granted except upon:

- (2) a showing of good cause based on a reason specified in subsection (e), that could not have been known or anticipated at the time the hearing was scheduled.

(e) Good cause, for purposes of subsections (c) and (d), includes any of the following reasons:

- (1) Inability of the appellant, the appellant's attorney, the department's attorney or necessary representative, or a necessary witness to attend the hearing because of a serious illness, incapacitating injury, or other serious physical or mental condition.
- (2) Death in the family of appellant, appellant's attorney, the department's attorney or necessary representative, or a necessary witness.
- (3) Severe weather conditions making it impossible or unsafe for a party, the party's attorney or necessary representative, or a necessary witness to travel to the location of the hearing.
- (4) Unavailability of a necessary witness whose evidence cannot be otherwise obtained, if the witness or evidence is anticipated to be available within a reasonable time.
- (5) Any other reason of a similar nature that the ALJ finds to be compelling.

(f) Nothing in this section limits the authority of an ALJ to reschedule any hearing without a request for continuance.

Sec. 19. (a) As used in this section, "hearing record" includes the following:

(1) Any applicable documents, recording, transcript, or other item listed in IC 4-21.5-3-33.

(2) Any item listed in IC 4-21.5-3-33 that relates to an ancillary hearing conducted by the ALJ under any applicable statutory procedure relating to an administrative hearing under this rule.

(b) As used in this section, "transcript" means a written transcription of an audio or video recording of a hearing included in the hearing record, prepared for purposes of the hearing decision or judicial review of that decision.

(c) The hearing record of a hearing that is closed or confidential under applicable law is confidential and will be made available, upon request, only to a party or the authorized attorney or other designated representative of a party, unless release of the hearing record is ordered by a court in a case to which the person requesting the hearing record is a party, after notice to the parties to the administrative hearing and a court hearing.

(d) The hearing record of a hearing that is not closed or confidential under applicable law will be made available, on request, to any person, subject to:

(1) exclusion or redaction of any portion of the record that is confidential under applicable law; and

(2) objection stated in writing by a party to the hearing, as provided in subsection (e).

(e) A person who is not a party in a hearing to which subsection (d) applies, and who desires to obtain a copy of all or any portion of the hearing record, shall submit to the general counsel of the department a written request specifying the portion of the hearing record desired. The department will forward a copy of that request to each party to the hearing, or the party's attorney. A party may submit to the department, with copy to the requester and within ten (10) days after receipt of the request, a response to the request that states any objection the party has to compliance with the request, and the basis or reasons for the objection. If an objection is timely submitted, the requester may submit to the department, within ten (10) days after receipt of the objection, a written response. The department general counsel or designee may sustain or overrule the objection upon consideration of the submissions received from the requester and objecting party.

(f) If a party requests a transcript of an administrative hearing for purposes of a petition for judicial review of the administrative decision under IC 4-21.5-5, the department may refer the party, or the party's attorney or other authorized representative, to a designated contractor or vendor that is qualified to prepare transcripts of hearings that the department conducts under this rule. The requesting party is responsible for making arrangements with the contractor or vendor for preparation of the transcript and payment of the fee or cost for its preparation, unless the court in which the petition for judicial review was filed finds that the petitioner is unable to pay the transcript cost and orders the department to provide the transcript without cost to the petitioner.

(g) The department will advise the petitioner concerning the anticipated time for completion of a transcript under the procedure specified in this section. The department may review for accuracy a transcript prepared for a party by the designated contractor or vendor, for purposes of judicial review. Upon receipt and approval of the transcript, the department shall prepare, assemble, and certify as needed, the hearing record other than the transcript, and submit the hearing record, including the transcript, to the judicial review petitioner or the petitioner's attorney for filing with the court.

(h) The department will not prepare a transcript of an administrative hearing under this rule that is requested by a party or any other person, for any purpose other than a judicial review petition filed under IC 4-21.5-5. If the party or other person requests and is entitled to obtain a copy of a hearing record, the department will, subject to subsection (i), provide a copy of the digital recording of the hearing together with any other portions of the hearing record that the requester is entitled to obtain, subject to payment of the cost of copying those items requested as provided by applicable law.

(i) If the digital recording of the hearing includes testimony or other information that is classified as confidential under applicable law, the department is not required to provide a redacted copy of the recording, unless the department has available the technological capability to redact without additional cost the confidential testimony or other information. If provision of a redacted copy is not feasible or required under this subsection, the department may deny a request for a copy of the hearing recording.
