Rule 2. Advisory Opinions before the State Ethics Commission

40 IAC 2-2-1 Procedure

Authority: IC 4-2-6-4

Affected: IC 4-2-6

Sec. 1. (a) The commission may render formal advisory opinions in accordance with IC 4-2-6-4(b)(1).

(b) A person requesting a formal advisory opinion shall submit a written request that is signed by the person making the request. The request shall include the official position of the person making the request and disclose all material facts necessary for the commission to understand the circumstances and render a complete opinion. The request must relate to an actual set of circumstances that applies to the requesting party. An agency ethics officer may submit a request on behalf of his or her agency or an employee of the agency.

(c) The person requesting the formal advisory opinion shall appear before the commission. The commission staff shall send to the person making the request notice of the date, time, and place to appear before the commission. The name of the person filing the request shall appear on the agenda of the meeting.

(d) In an emergency situation, the commission chair and the state ethics director shall decide whether to add to the agenda a request that was received less than ten (10) calendar days before a commission meeting.

(e) The commission shall render its opinion in a public meeting by vote of a majority of commission members present.

(f) Following the commission's decision, the commission staff shall prepare a written formal advisory opinion. The commission staff shall send a copy of the formal advisory opinion to the person who requested the formal advisory opinion and to the state officer or appointing authority of the person requesting the formal advisory opinion, if any. Reliance upon a formal advisory opinion is conditioned upon the following:

(1) The facts and circumstances actually exist.

(2) All of the relevant facts and circumstances related to the formal advisory opinion have been disclosed to the commission.

(g) A formal advisory opinion rendered by the commission is binding on the commission in any subsequent allegations concerning the person who requested the opinion and who acted on the advice given by the commission in good faith, unless the person requesting the formal advisory opinion omitted or misstated material facts in the request for the formal advisory opinion or testimony before the commission. (State Ethics Commission; 40 IAC 2-2-1; filed Oct 22, 1991, 11:10 a.m.: 15 IR 204; readopted filed Aug 2, 2001, 3:15 p.m.: 24 IR 4227; readopted filed Nov 29, 2007, 11:14 a.m.: 20071226-IR-040070658RFA; readopted filed Sep 30, 2013, 1:33 p.m.: 20131030-IR-040130243RFA; filed Aug 28, 2019, 9:51 a.m.: 20190925-IR-040190265FRA)

40 IAC 2-2-2 Request for reconsideration or clarification of formal advisory opinions

Authority: IC 4-2-6-4
Affected: IC 4-2-6

Sec. 2. (a) The person who requested a formal advisory opinion or on whose behalf the formal advisory opinion was requested may ask that the commission reconsider or clarify the opinion.

(b) The commission must receive any such request in writing within fifteen (15) days of when the commission sends the written formal advisory opinion to the person who made the request.

(c) The commission shall consider the request for reconsideration or clarification and:

(1) vote to confirm the existing formal advisory opinion;

(2) amend the existing formal advisory opinion; or

(3) issue a new formal advisory opinion.

40 IAC 2-3-4.1 Public hearings

Authority: IC 4-2-6-4

Affected: IC 4-2-6-12; IC 4-21.5-3

Sec. 4.1. (a) Upon a finding of probable cause, the commission shall set a public hearing on the matter.

(b) Prior to the public hearing, the commission shall:

(1) send a copy of the complaint filed by the inspector general to the respondent pursuant to service requirements under IC 4-21.5-3-1; and

(2) serve notice of a public hearing to the respondent in accordance with the requirements set forth in IC 4-21.5-3-20.

(c) The respondent may be represented by counsel, who shall file a written appearance with the commission.

(d) The parties or counsel for either party may:

(1) exercise all discovery provisions under Trial Rules 26 through 37; and

(2) file motions in writing at any time after the filing of the complaint.

All appearances and filings must be filed with the commission in writing, with a copy served to the respondent or the respondent's counsel and the inspector general's counsel.

(e) There are no specific requirements of a form for any pleading, except:

(1) cases shall be titled "In the Matter of";

(2) the title provided for shall appear at the upper left portion of the initial page of any pleading or paper (other than exhibits) filed;

(3) the initial page of any pleading or paper (other than exhibits) shall show, opposite the title, the case number assigned by the commission, if known; and

(4) motions and petitions shall contain the name, address, and phone number of the person filing, including any counsel representing a party, and shall be signed by the person filing or counsel.

(f) Public hearings may be conducted by either:

(1) the commission; or

(2) one (1) or more commission members acting as administrative law judges.

(g) On motion of a party or the commission chair, the commission chair or an administrative law judge may consolidate hearings on two (2) or more allegations or cases against different persons if:

(1) it is determined that there is substantial identity of facts arising out of a common transaction or event; or

(2) the respondent is the same person although the violations alleged arose from different complaints, transactions, or events.

Consolidation shall not be ordered if consolidation will substantially prejudice the right of any party.

(h) The commission chair or an administrative law judge for the hearing shall rule on all motions, except for any motions or actions that would terminate the adjudicatory proceeding. Any motion or action that would terminate the adjudicatory proceeding may be taken only by the commission.

(i) Unless otherwise ordered by the commission chair or administrative law judge, the inspector general and respondent or counsel for respondent shall exchange exhibits and the names and addresses of witnesses at least ten (10) days prior to the public hearing.

(j) After the hearing, the commission chair or the administrative law judge may request that the interested parties submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law for the commission's acceptance, rejection, or modification.

(k) If the hearing is conducted by an administrative law judge, the administrative law judge shall submit a recommended report to the full commission and all interested parties.

(l) The finding of a violation by the commission must be based on a preponderance of the evidence and be supported by a majority vote. If the commission finds a violation, the commission may set a penalty as provided in IC 4-2-6-12.

(m) The commission shall state its findings in a written report supported and signed by a majority of the commission. The final report shall be adopted by the commission at a public meeting. The report shall be made public and served upon the respondent and all interested parties. (State Ethics Commission; 40 IAC 2-3-4.1; filed Aug 28, 2019, 9:51 a.m.: 20190925-IR-040190265FRA)
