Affected: IC 6-8.1-7-1; IC 7.1-4-6

Sec. 1. (a) Unless in accordance with a judicial order, the department of state revenue, its employees, former employees, counsel, or agents, may not divulge any federal information disclosed by the documents required to be filed under this article, except to:

- (1) members, employees, and agents of the department of state revenue;
- (2) the governor, or the governor's employees;
- (3) a member or employee of the general assembly when acting on behalf of a taxpayer located in the member's legislative district who has provided sufficient information that the member or employee is acting on behalf of the taxpayer;
- (4) the attorney general or any other legal representative of the state in any action in respect to the amount of tax due under this article; or
- (5) any duly authorized officer of the United States;

when it is agreed that the information is to be confidential and to be used solely for official purposes.

(b) State information disclosed by the documents required to be filed under this article may be disclosed without a judicial order when it is agreed that the information is to be confidential and to be used solely for tax collection purposes.

(c) State information may be revealed upon the receipt of a certified request from any designated officer of the state tax department of any other state, district, territory, or possession of the United States when:

- (1) that state, district, territory, or possession permits the exchange of like information with the taxing officials of the state of Indiana; and
- (2) it is agreed that the information is to be confidential and to be used solely for tax collection purposes.

(d) This section does not apply to statistical information compiled from alcoholic beverage excise tax returns, which may be disclosed without a judicial order so long as the department does not disclose information identifying any taxpayer. Authority: IC 6-8.1-3-3; IC 7.1-4-2-8; IC 7.1-4-6-3.6

Affected: IC 6-8.1-9-1; IC 7.1-4-2-8; IC 7.1-4-3-5; IC 7.1-4-4-6; IC 7.1-4-4.5

Sec. 5.5. (a) A person may claim a deduction on the monthly return required to be filed under 45 IAC 7-5-1 for alcoholic beverages under the following circumstances:

- (1) the person sold or withdrew for sale an alcoholic beverage to an exempt entity under 45 IAC 7-6-1;
- (2) an alcoholic beverage was damaged or destroyed while in the person's possession; or
- (3) an alcoholic beverage was returned by the person to the primary source of supply;

so long as the person submitted proof as required under section 6 of this rule.

(b) If this deduction exceeds the liabilities owed to the state on that monthly return, the department shall refund the tax to the person.

(c) If the person does not claim the deduction on the monthly return, the refund procedures under IC 6-8.1-9-1 will apply.

(d) The tax paid on alcoholic beverages subsequently lost or stolen cannot be deducted, refunded, or credited. (Department of State Revenue; 45 IAC 7-3-5.5; filed Sep 7, 2016, 4:11 p.m.: 20160928-IR-045160002FRA)

Authority: IC 6-8.1-3-3; IC 7.1-4-2-8; IC 7.1-4-6-3.6

Affected: IC 7.1-4-2-8; IC 7.1-4-3-5; IC 7.1-4-4-6; IC 7.1-4-4.5

Sec. 6. In order to claim a deduction or receive a refund of an alcoholic beverage excise tax, the following proof must be retained:

(1) For an exempt sale under 45 IAC 7-6-1, the following:

(A) If the sale is to the United States government, its agencies, or its instrumentalities, copies of the invoice stating the regular selling price less the excise tax.

(B) If the sale is to a person other than the United States government, its agencies, or its instrumentalities, copies of the invoice showing:

(i) purchaser's name;

(ii) address;

(iii) date;

(iv) amount of beer sold; and

(v) either:

(AA) a waybill, bill of lading, or other evidence of shipment issued by a common carrier; or

(BB) a trip sheet, acceptable by the department, supported by a properly notarized export shipping form supplied by the department.

(2) For returned alcoholic beverages, copies of the invoice or invoices showing the following:

(A) Primary source of supply's name.

(B) Credit invoice number.

(C) Date returned.

(D) Date excise tax was paid.

(E) Gallons returned.

(3) For alcoholic beverages that have been damaged or destroyed, any information reasonably required by the department.

Rule 4. Imposition of Tax

45 IAC 7-4-1 Persons responsible for tax payment

Authority: IC 6-8.1-3-3; IC 7.1-4-6-3.6

Affected: IC 7.1-4

Sec. 1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in IC 7.1-4, the following permit holders are required to collect the specific alcohol excise taxes on the first sale or withdrawal for sale of an alcoholic beverage within Indiana:

(1) The persons liable for the beer excise tax are governed by IC 7.1-4-2-2.

(2) A permittee listed in IC 7.1-4-3-2 is liable for the collection and payment of the liquor excise tax.

(3) A permittee listed in IC 7.1-4-4-3, as well as a direct wine seller, is liable for the collection and payment of the wine excise tax.

(4) A permittee listed in IC 7.1-4-4.5-3 is liable for the collection and payment of the hard cider excise tax.

(5) A permittee listed in IC 7.1-4-5-2, [IC 7.1-4-5 was repealed by P.L.285-2019, SECTION 57, effective July 1, 2019.] is liable for the collection and payment of the malt excise tax.

(b) The taxes listed in subsection (a) are imposed on the sale or gift, or withdrawal for sale or gift, to a person of an alcoholic beverage subject to that tax, regardless of whether or not the person purchasing the alcoholic beverage is authorized to purchase or receive it.

(c) The alcoholic beverage subject to the taxes shall be taxed only once, at the first sale or withdrawal for sale, in the following manner:

(1) When a primary source of alcohol located within the state of Indiana sells, or withdraws for sale, alcohol to a person in Indiana, the primary source of alcohol is responsible for paying the alcoholic beverage excise tax.

(2) When a wholesaler located within Indiana receives alcohol from a primary source of alcohol not located within Indiana, the wholesaler located within Indiana is responsible for paying the alcoholic beverage excise tax.

(3) When a permit holder sells, or withdraws for sale, alcohol directly to a retailer or consumer, the permit holder is responsible for paying the tax.
