Rule 3. Retirement Benefits

35 IAC 4-3-1 Retirement benefits

Authority: IC 5-10-5.5-3; IC 5-10.5-4-2

Affected: IC 5-10-5.5-15; IC 5-10-5.5-16

Sec. 1. Retirement Benefits. If a fund member dies while receiving retirement benefits, the following apply:

(1) A surviving mother or father nominated by the retired participant to receive survivors' benefits shall be entitled to an annual survivors' allowance for life equal to fifty percent (50%) of the participant's monthly benefit.

(2) A surviving spouse nominated by the retired participant to receive survivors' benefits shall be entitled to an annual survivors' allowance for life equal to fifty percent (50%) of the retired participant's monthly benefit. In the case of a surviving spouse who is more than five (5) years younger than the deceased participant at the time of the participant's death, the amount of the annual survivors' allowance shall be reduced actuarially, without regard to the sex of the spouse or the participant.

(3) A surviving child eligible and nominated by the retired participant to receive survivors' benefits shall be entitled to an annual survivors' allowance equal to fifty percent (50%) of the retired participant's monthly benefit. If more than one (1) surviving child is eligible and nominated to receive survivors' benefits, the annual allowance shall be divided equally between or among such children. In all cases, the survivors' allowance to a child shall cease when the child attains the age of eighteen (18) years or marries, whichever occurs first. Where a survivors' allowance is divided between or among more than one (1) child, and payments to one (1) or more children cease, the total annual allowance payable shall be divided evenly among or between the remaining children who are eligible therefore. If there are two (2) or more surviving dependent children, the actuarial equivalent of the benefit described in this subsection shall be calculated and, considering the dependent children's attained ages, an equal dollar amount shall be determined as the monthly survivor benefit to be paid to each dependent child. Monthly survivor benefits under this subsection [subdivision] are payable until the date the dependent child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or dies, whichever is earlier.

(4) In the event that no nomination is made by an eligible participant, or in the event that the nominated survivor predeceases the participant and no contingent survivor is nominated and an eligible participant dies, no survivors' allowance shall be payable.

Sec. 1.2. For retirements after the effective date of this rule, in accordance with Section 905 of the Pension Protection Act of 2006, and unless otherwise prohibited by law, a conservation, excise, or gaming participant who:

(1) is no longer working in conservation, excise, or gaming covered service with the state of Indiana;

is entitled to begin receiving early or regular retirement benefits from the conservation, excise, or gaming plan if the participant is otherwise eligible for retirement and is at least fifty-five (55) years of age at the time the participant applies for retirement. For example, John is fifty-five (55) years of age and has fifteen (15) years of service as a state of Indiana conservation officer. John terminates his service as a conservation officer and immediately accepts a position with the state's department of homeland security in a PERF covered position.
