Rule 2.1. Representation

560 IAC 2-2.1-1 Agreed composition or amendment of bargaining unit

Authority: IC 20-29-3-11

Affected: IC 20-29-5-1

Sec. 1. (a) A school employer and a voluntarily recognized school employee organization may agree as to the initial composition of a bargaining unit, consistent with IC 20-29-5-1.

(b) A school employer and an exclusive representative may agree to amend an existing unit at any time. A unit amendment is appropriate when:

- (1) a position has been newly created and is to be added to or excluded from the existing unit; or
- (2) an existing position is to be added to or excluded from the existing unit.

(c) An agreed change in the description of the bargaining unit that does not include or exclude any school employee is not the composition of or an amendment to a bargaining unit and does not require notice under this rule. The school employer shall submit the new proposed bargaining unit description to the board and affirm that no school employee is affected by the proposed language. If there is no affected school employee, the executive director shall issue a bargaining unit order that reflects the new description of the bargaining unit.

(d) A school employer shall provide notice to all certificated school employees of any agreed composition of or amendment to a unit, which includes the following information:

- (1) A description of the existing bargaining unit.
- (2) A description of the proposed changes to the bargaining unit.
- (3) The current address, telephone number, and email address for the board.
- (4) That objections to the composition or amendment may be made to the board within thirty (30) days of the first date of notice.

(e) The executive director shall provide a sample notice accessible on the board's website in an electronic format.

(f) Prior to issuing such notice, the school employer may submit the proposed notice to the executive director and obtain approval of the contents, timing, and the intended method of notice from the executive director. If a school employer does not submit the proposed notice for preapproval, the executive director will review the notice after posting to ensure substantial compliance with this rule.

(g) The school employer shall provide a dated copy of the notice to the board with a signed verification of the notice date. Should no complaint by an affected school employee be filed within thirty (30) days of the first date of notice indicated on the certification, the proposed amendment shall be certified by the executive director.

(h) The executive director shall deny an agreed unit amendment if it includes a position in the bargaining unit that is contrary to this rule or to IC 20-29-5-1. The executive director may require documentation or evidence to support an agreed addition or removal of a position from the bargaining unit to ensure compliance.

(i) Initial unit composition becomes effective upon certification by the executive director or the date upon which the employee organization becomes the exclusive representative.

(j) Unit amendments become effective upon certification by the executive director and constitute the unit to be used for the next collective bargaining agreement. Certification of a new bargaining unit does not modify the unit in an existing collective bargaining agreement. (Indiana Education Employment Relations Board; 560 IAC 2-2.1-1; filed May 24, 2018, 11:06 a.m.: 20180620-IR-560170443FRA)

- (1) be submitted in the format required by the board; and
- (2) include all information and documents required by the board.

(c) Prior to the end of formal bargaining of each year, the board will post on its website the required format, information, and documents for an LBO for that year's bargaining season. This information also will be sent to the parties upon declaration of impasse.

(d) The LBO shall be submitted to the board electronically. The board may also require the LBO to be submitted in hard copy.

(e) The executive director shall provide modified LBO requirements for parties when:

(g) The board staff shall review the LBOs to ensure that the LBO is in the required format and contains the required information and documents. Failure to substantially comply with the requirements of an LBO could result in rejection of the submitted LBO and acceptance of the opposing party's LBO.

(h) If a party has substantially complied with the LBO requirements, the executive director will notify the submitting party, who will have forty-eight (48) hours to provide the requested format, information, or documents.
